

The world of wills, probate, and trusts have shifted radically in the past year due to the untimely arrival of a pandemic and the growth of asset classes, which brought with it new types of claims, and a wide array of complex issues.

With leading practitioners, discover the pressing issues on the horizon and the ways to manage novel challenges practically.

Chris Hards will be attending this conference, please feel free to get in touch using the details opposite.