

Ogier are sponsoring this event which will hear from female business leaders and authorities in their field discussing their experience and insights in the financial services industry.

Katherine Neal will be attending and is one of the speakers at the event. Please email Katherine should you wish to arrange a separate meeting.

For more information about the event, please visit Jersey Finance website here.