

Joanne Huckle will be moderating the panel at this in-person session hosted alongside 100WF, which will review the developments and trends that have affected the alternative investments industry in 2022 and anticipate what may lie ahead as the new year approaches.

Hear from placement agent Nancy Vailakis principal at Ancram IRBD, of New York, and William Rinehart, CFO of Prisma Capital. Explore developments in fund structuring and changing investor demands and other key issues, including:

- the geopolitical landscape
- the after-effects of the COVID-19 pandemic
- an increasing investor focus on sustainability
- reactions to an evolving regulatory agenda
- higher inflationary trends and spiking interest rates

If you would like to connect with us at the event, please reach out via the contact details provided on the right.

Find out more about the event here.