Who we are

Ogier's Banking and Finance team in Ireland advises both lenders and borrowers across a wide range of market sectors.

We are a professional services firm with the knowledge and expertise to handle the most demanding and complex transactions and provide expert, efficient and cost effective services to all our clients.

The firm practices the laws of BVI, Cayman, Guernsey, Ireland, Jersey and Luxembourg. We have 13 offices throughout Europe, the Caribbean, the Middle East and Asia, with approximately 1,100 employees and more than 100 legal partners worldwide.

Our Banking and Finance experts provide commercially driven, solutions-based advice on domestic financings in Ireland, as well as cross-border transactions. Our team has considerable experience across fund finance, structured finance, real estate finance, asset-based lending and trade receivables financings.

Our approach

We develop relationships with our clients to understand their business needs and drive transactions to achieve the desired results.

We help our clients to anticipate and identify any legal issues that might arise and we work with all parties involved to promptly resolve those in the most effective way.

Our commercial understanding and experience of working with leading financial institutions, professional advisers, high-net-worth individuals and regulatory bodies enable us to add real value to our clients' businesses.

We understand a lender's need to limit and manage risk whilst still developing a positive relationship with its clients and we work to facilitate those aims. We also support our clients with in-house training, seminars and briefings and as a firm we use technology to offer streamlined solutions.

Ogier also provides expert advice on restructuring and the realisation of security in enforcement situations for lenders and receivers. This gives us the ability to provide real-world advice on issues that might arise in such circumstances, and we work to develop structures for our clients that meet their business needs while minimising risks should an enforcement scenario arise.

"Richard Kelly stood out to me for the approach he championed. Richard consistently provided pragmatic solutions. Richard was also extremely responsive, always responding quickly even out of hours."

Ogier advised Thorntons Recycling on purchase of The City Bin Co

Ogier advised Thorntons Recycling, a leading recycling and waste management company, on the financing of their acquisition of The City Bin Co - enabling Thorntons Recycling to become the largest privately-owned company in the sector and the second largest waste processor in Ireland.

Our finance experts were part of Ogier's multi-disciplinary deal team, which brought together specialists from across the firm's corporate, real estate and employment services in Ireland.

Ogier advised Wildstone on groundbreaking infrastructure refinancing

Ogier's Banking and Finance experts in Ireland advised Wildstone on its landmark £350 million infrastructure refinancing - the first infrastructure debt raised in the European Out-of-Home (OOH) media sector and the first widely syndicated financing for Wildstone.

Ogier's cross-jurisdictional team provided Guernsey, Jersey, and Irish legal counsel for the transaction, which involved prominent financial institutions including Deutsche Bank, MEAG, Lloyds, Natixis, and M&G as mandated lead arrangers.
